TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[Telegraphic Reports for The Press Association.]

Richmond, Oct. 27.—Later Yankee papers of the 25th are received.

The Yankee Congress met on the 24th, and the President's message was read. It is a long document, and is largely devoted to foreign affairs. It says the Government has received no official information of the reported intervention of France in Mexico. The Emperor Napoleon has declared that he will not intervene in favor of the Confederacy, but will maintain a strict neutrality. The President says that the Government has received no official information of the reported recognition of the Confederacy by England.
